

Department of International Economics
International Economics Course

Subjects
Microeconomics I / II
Macroeconomics I / II
Economics of Information and Organization I / II
Game Theory I / II
Mathematics for Economics I / II
Introduction to Econometrics I / II
Statistics I / II
International Economics I / II
Financial Economics I / II
International Monetary Economics I / II
International Economic Policy I / II
Industrial Organization I / II
Public Economics
International Public Policy I / II
Development Economics
International Economic Development Policy
Development Finance
Environmental Economics I / II
Policy on Natural Resources
The Asian Economy
The East Asian Economy
The American Economy
The European Economy
Japanese Economy
Economic History
Applied Microeconomic Analysis
International Labor Economics
Special Topics (International Economics)
Multinational Business Management
Seminar I / II (International Economics)