5. Housing

For detailed information about Housing, please see the Housing Information which is uploaded on the website of the International Center. There is separate Housing Information for each campus. The International Center has a recommended dormitory managed by “Kyoritsu Maintenance Co., Ltd.”. This dorm has an easy process for entering from abroad, has a dorm manager 24 hours with high security, and the possibility to make a contract that includes meals.

For students who do not wish to live in the recommended dormitory, please refer to the Housing Information, as it contains information for apartments, guesthouses and homestays as well.

If you wish to stay at recommended dormitories, Dormy (Aoyama Campus) and “Diakonia Hashimoto” (Sagamihara Campus), please check “I will apply for the recommended dormitory” on the online form and contact “Kyoritsu Maintenance Co., Ltd.” directly via the online form or email. The application deadline for these dormitories is the same as the deadline for the exchange program.
